IGHTHAM MOTE.
NEAR SEVENOAKS.

LL10065

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

(For Address Only.)

Ightham Mote. This charming mediæval manor house, beautifully situated in a woody hollow and surrounded by a moat, is almost unique. The hall and chapel date from the reign of Edward III., and the outlying buildings from the reigns of Elizabeth and James I. After several changes of ownership, Ightham Mote came into possession of the Selbys in 1592, who retained it nearly three centuries.

Printed in England.

"OLD TIMBERED HOUSES. [Regd.] Postcard 9070.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

C7PA12.9